ADDITIONAL DATA: The exact date of the organization of this Society is not known, due to the records having been burned, but it was about 1750. Several buildings were erected here and taken down when the present church was erected in 1852. It is a neat and substantial brick building with a white frame bell-tower. The building was erected at a cost of a little over $4000.00. There is also a chapel and sabbath-school room, the only one ever erected, standing near the church, which was built in 1871. In 1832 a parsonage was built at a cost of $626.72. In 1873 this was taken down and a new parsonage built at a cost of $2,752, together with material from the old parsonage.
